

Day of Archaeology Festival

Saturday, July 16th 2016

10AM – 3PM | Dumbarton House | 2715 Q St NW | Washington, DC 20007

Join the DC Historic Preservation Office (DC HPO) for the 5th annual Day of Archaeology Festival, hosted by Archaeology in the Community (AITC), a District-based nonprofit educational organization. Meet local archaeologists in person and learn about the science and art of doing archaeology, volunteer opportunities, and local history. There will be activities for all ages: mock-excavation, hands-on artifact displays, crafts, and lectures. Visitors will have an opportunity to enjoy the Dumbarton House Museum, music, face painting, and some of D.C.'s best food trucks. The event is free to the public and open to people of all ages. Participants include:

#ArchaeoFest16 #dayofarch #AITC_DC

archaeology crafts music face painting food trucks local history

Some parking is available near the venue. The closest Metro Station is the Dupont Circle Station via the Red Line. From the Q Street exit, the house is approximately six blocks west on Q Street, NW, just over the Q Street Bridge leading to Georgetown, a short walk, or ride on the D2 or D6 bus lines. For more info visit <http://dumbartonhouse.org/hours-directions>.

Office of Planning, DC Historic Preservation Office | 1100 4th Street, SW, Ste E650 | Washington, DC 20024 | ruth.trocolli@dc.gov